Translating Personal Documents for Official Use

Interactive Professional Development Workshop

This is the first of a series of workshops specifically designed for translators with input from WAITI members and language service providers. Bente Sorensen, long-standing WAITI Fellow and translator with a track record of decades of professional work, will facilitate the session and share with you her experience and insight into:

- Fundamental issues
- Checking/second opinion
- Extract translations
- Challenges

These topics will be covered in relation to both, translation practice and translation ethics. Be prepared to contribute to a practical, hands-on session! Please bring your laptop and writing materials.
